Second VP: Gallery Director: Lis Krawiecki: Rehang is March 11 and 12. Thanks to Barb and Steve Wylie and Sharon and George Haffey for help in reconfiguring one wall and re-building another to make sufficient space for our artists.

3rd VP: Art Education Center: Sharon Haffey Approximately 20 artists gathered in the AEC on February 11th to create art in a group setting. Hopefully, there will be more opportunities in the coming months for to IAA members together to learn, work and play, thereby strengthening the cohesiveness of our organization. Sundays on Second movies continue to be a success as many individuals from the community have attended and enjoy the experience of learning about some of the very interesting lovers and creators of art. Thanks to Pipar West and Barb Wylie for their on going efforts to keep showing the films and making the popcorn! The children's summer camp has been scheduled for the week of July 8-12 and will be coordinated by Rebecca McDannold and Pipar West. There will be no groups meeting in the AEC during the week of March 24-30 as Elio Camacho has workshops scheduled as well as his free painting demo from 2-5 pm on Sunday, March 24. Finally, the AEC's YArt sale was a huge success as over $600 was

Susan: Gave an update on the Gallery mortgage

Barb: Update on Shrimp Festival sign-up sheets. The S.F. sign-up sheets will be in the Gallery office.

Barb: Discuss whether we should do away with the newsletters and replace with the 1st and 15th of the month E-Blasts. No decision was made at this time.

F. New Business: Lis: On behalf on the IAA, she received an anonymous gift donation of $5000 from a family foundation.
