

CALL FOR CURRENT EXHIBITING MEMBERS TO APPLY FOR A NEW MEDIUM

The Island Art Association will convene a jury for the purpose of jurying the artwork of Current Exhibiting Members of the Island Art Association for an additional medium than currently approved. The jury will convene on November 1 & 2 for the purpose of selecting artists for such admission.

The gallery committee will form a panel to jury current member applicants' works. The panel of jurors will evaluate work based on the basic standards of Fine Art such as

Composition	Principals of Design	Elements of Design	Skill
Design	Talent	Originality	Professional Presentation

Overall presentation of all 2D and 3D mediums listed in the Operations Manual (section 3.3.5) will be considered for acceptance.

Each applicant should understand that current members must use their current space to exhibit all mediums for which they are accepted. Applicants must be an Exhibiting Member in good standing as defined in Chapter Three of the Operations Manual. An online copy is available on our website at islandart.org. Go to "Member Information"; then click on "IAA Operations Manual."

If you are interested in applying for a new medium as a Current Exhibiting Member, please complete the form below and return it to the gallery. A folder will be provided for the completed forms at the front desk. The deadline for applying is September 30, 2023 at end of business day, 5:00 pm ET.

Emailed or online applications will not be accepted. Please take your application to the IAA front desk or mail it to Lis Krawiecki, Gallery co-director: 4940 Victoria Landing Court, or Deni Karpowich, Gallery co-director: 96203 Lanceford Lane, Fernandina Beach, FL 32034
